

VIDEO/PHOTOGRAPHY CONSENT FORM

For use of images of Young People in our work & publicity

FilmG recognises the need to ensure the safety and wellbeing of children and young people.

FilmG is an exciting Gaelic project that encourages young Gaelic speakers to engage with the language and the team like to promote the films and the positive stories relating to the project online.

The FilmG Workshop Tutors may take photographs or videos while the FilmG entry is being produced, for promotional purposes. These images may appear on our web & social media sites such as instagram, facebook and twitter, in the media such as newspaper articles, external websites such as YouTube or Vimeo, all of which are public and could be shared, as is the product of the workshop – a short film – which will be on the FilmG website as well as other platforms.

Our child protection policy states we will not permit photographs, video or other images of children and young people to be taken, nor published without the consent of parents/legal guardians and/or the young people.
